

Ask City Council to Adopt a Ravine Protection Ordinance

The signees below ask that Columbus City Council adopt an ordinance that will:

- preserve ravines and the urban green space they provide
- retain and stabilize their slopes
- preserve their mature trees
- preserve the urban tree canopy they provide
- protect their water quality
- better protect Columbus, Ohio, from the effects of climate change.

Date	Name	Address	email	Add to mailing list

Columbus, Ohio does not have beaches or mountains, but it has ravines & they are valuable natural resources.

Send signed petition to: Friends of the Ravines, PO Box 82021, Columbus Ohio 43202; friendsoftheravines@gmail.com